Someone here will let me know I'm in a safe space. They will help me find the right next steps.

They will ask me a few questions to help me get the support I need.

1. Have you experienced a bias or hate crime?

They can call 911 for me to help me report a crime to the Dublin Police. An officer will be here shortly.

2. Do you feel threatened or intimidated?

They can call 911 to help me file a police report. They can also connect me with the right people who can help.

3. Are you in a personal crisis and need help?

They can find me mental health resources for right now or for the future. Can they call a police officer to help?

I don't have to speak to the police, but I am encouraged to report threats or anything criminal to Dublin Police.

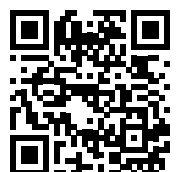

Call 911 in an emergency

Someone can help me call the police if I'm in danger or need to report a crime

Call 614.889.1112 for non-emergency

Someone can help me call the police about a non-threatening situation

Safe Space Dublin allies and emergency response professionals are here to help.
